

Phoebe Hunt, with special guest, Doug Raffety, on Thursday, April 18th.

This intimate performance will be at the Rock Shop in downtown Homewood, IL (18109 Dixie Hwy, Homewood, IL 60430). Doors open at 630pm, music starts at 7pm.

This is a BYOB event, and please keep in mind, that this is also a listening event. During the performances, please refrain from conversation and activity that interferes with others enjoying the show.

Free Parking and accessibility: Municipal and street parking is available throughout downtown Homewood (please observe posted restrictions). If you have accessibility needs, please reach out via email to trailmixmusicfest@gmail.com or call the Rock Shop prior to the show (708.960.4053)

Will-Call: Please come to the will-call table with an ID and the name that you purchased your ticket under, or use your printed ticket for expedited entry.

Nellie McKay, with special guest, the Molly Rose Trio, on Friday, April 26th.

And

Joe Pug, with special guest, Andrew Robert Palmer & the Heavy Hors D'oeuvres the Molly Rose Trio, on Friday, April 26th.

These concerts will be in Cooper's Hall upstairs at the Thornton Distillery (400 E. Margaret St, Thornton, IL 60476). Doors open to Cooper's Hall at 6pm, but the bar and restaurant downstairs open at 3pm. Feel free to arrive early for drinks and dinner before you enter the hall. Drinks will be available in Cooper's Hall throughout the evening. Outside food and drink is not allowed. Music starts at 7pm.

A small portion of the seating includes large round tables for small groups, available on a first come, first served basis. Want to sit with friends? Arrive early!

Free Parking and accessibility: There are two parking lots immediately behind Thornton Distillery; turn north on Blackstone St. immediately west of the distillery to access them. These lots have direct and handicap accessible access to Cooper's Hall. A small number of parking spots are available in front of the venue on Margaret St, and Blackstone St. offers limited street parking; please respect any posted restrictions.

Will-Call: Please come to the will-call table with an ID and the name you used to purchase your ticket, or use your printed ticket for expedited entry.

In General:

Trail Mix Events are for people who love to watch and listen to artists playing incredible music live. During each performance, concert goers are asked to please refrain from conversation and activity that interferes with others enjoying the show.

REFUND AND EXCHANGE POLICY: Tickets are not refundable unless the concert is cancelled/postponed by the artist, in which case vouchers for the postponed concert or another Trail Mix concert will be offered. As needed, refunds for cancelled/postponed concerts (less the internet fees) will be granted via refunding the purchasing card/account, or another agreed upon method.

NOTE: For other unforeseen, unpreventable events, including "acts of God," there are no refunds or exchanges.
